

Form D-410 (Reverse)

If you do not file the application for extension by the original due date of the return, you are subject to both the 5 percent per month late filing penalty and the 10 percent late payment penalty on the remaining tax due.

How To Claim Credit For Payments Made With This Form - When you file your return, include the amount paid with this extension on Line 22b of Form D-400. If you and your spouse each file a separate Form D-410, but file a joint return for taxable year, enter the total paid with the two Forms D-410 on Line 22b of your return.

If you and your spouse jointly filed Form D-410, but file separate returns for the taxable year, you may enter the total amount paid with Form D-410 on either of your separate returns. Or, you and your spouse may divide the payment in any agreed amounts. Be sure each separate return has the social security numbers of both spouses.

Specific Instructions

Name, Address, and Social Security Numbers - Enter your name, address, and social security number and your spouse's name and social security number if filing a joint return.

Line 1 - Enter on this line the amount you expect to enter on Line 16 of Form D-400. If you do not expect to owe tax, enter zero.

Line 2 - Enter on this line any North Carolina income tax withheld, estimated tax payments (including any overpayment applied from the previous year), and any other payments and credits you expect to show on your return.

Out of the Country - If you were a U. S. citizen or resident and were out of the country on the due date of your return, you are granted an automatic 4-month extension to file your return. You do not have to file this form on April 15. Instead, fill in the "Out of the Country" circle on page 1 of Form D-400 to indicate you were out of the country on April 15. If you need an additional two months to file your return, fill in the circle located at the bottom right of this form and file the form on or before August 15. For this purpose, "Out of the Country" means either (1) you live outside the United States and Puerto Rico, AND your main place of work is outside the United States and Puerto Rico, or (2) you are in military or naval service outside the United States and Puerto Rico.

Important: Do not use this form to request extensions of time for filing partnership, estate, trust, corporate income, or franchise tax returns.
