Form B-C-710 must be filed monthly, with remittance, within 15 days after the close of the month for which the tax accrues by all resident beer wholesalers and importers, as well as resident breweries making retail sales (resident breweries are required to complete the front page only). A return marked "No Transactions" must be filed even if there was no activity for the month. Records must be maintained for three years for audit purposes.

List required information for beer received during the month in Part 2. Credit memorandums should be deducted from listed purchases. Beer destroyed while in the hands of a common carrier between the brewery and resident wholesaler or importer may be deducted from listed purchases when paid for by the common carrier. Deductions will not be allowed without satisfactory explanations including the description and amount of beer destroyed and the invoice number.

Allowable Deductions include sales to ocean going vessels, out-of-state sales and major disasters. A major disaster covers losses in a single event of 50 or more cases, or the equivalent, of malt beverages and must be verified by a revenue agent on Form B-C-750. (Resident breweries are not required to remit excise taxes on malt beverages given free of charge to customers, visitors, and employees on the manufacturer licensed premises for consumption on these premises). Copies of invoices and other documentation such as credit memorandums and bills of lading must be furnished to claim these deductions.

The excise tax is payable by the first resident wholesaler or importer receiving the product in this State. Purchases from other resident wholesalers or importers are to be reported in Part 3 and deducted as an adjustment to taxable transactions. Copies of purchase invoices must be maintained for three years for audit purposes.
